

January 25, 2013

Dear Andrew,

Through your incredibly hard work in the Inaugural Operations department you ensured the successful execution of the 57th Presidential Inauguration. There is no small amount of thanks that I can give to you that would properly acknowledge the perseverance, steadfastness, and diligence you invested in this department and the Inauguration. And so I applaud both the careful attention you have given to your duties in facilitating this event and the great results that have come of that hard work. I am honored to have worked with you and extremely appreciate your dedication and commitment. You have worked hard and achieved great accomplishments on behalf of our President and Vice President. For that, I offer my heartfelt gratitude.

Sincerely and thankfully,

Zoe Garmendia

Director of Inaugural Operations
The 57th Presidential Inauguration

THANKS
FOR YOUR LEADERSHIP. //

